MORBI BRIDGE COLLAPSE

6 of 10 widows refused jobs offered by Oreva, 4 survivors suffered 'mental injury', state tells HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, JANUARY 30

SIX OF 10 women who lost their husbands in the Morbi bridge collapse in 2022 refused jobs offered by Oreva Group, which was responsible for maintenance and repair of the bridge, the state government told the Gujarat High Court Tuesday.

In a submission by the state government, the court was also told it has identified four survivors "with mental injury". Four of the 56 persons injured in the October 2022 incident have suffered a disability of over 40 per cent.

The submission came after the High Court in December had urged the state to provide the necessary support to victims of the Morbi bridge collapse, not only for their physical injuries but also for those who are in mental trauma.

The bridge collapse in October 2022 killed 135. File

In the hearing in December, the High Court had also made it clear that a one-time compensation by Oreva was not enough for the survivors. The court had directed to offer jobs to affected women. If the women are unwilling to work due to their circumstances, then the firm should pay a monthly stipend for their sustenance, the court had further said.

On Tuesday, the bench of Chief Justice Sunita Agarwal and Justice Aniruddha Mayee heard a suo motu public interest litigation linked to the bridge collapse tragedy that had killed 135.

The state, represented by Advocate General Kamal Trivedi, also informed the bench that the state machinery took stock of the 10 women who were widowed due to the incident. While four of them agreed to accept Oreva's job offer, six widows denied the firm's offer due to various reasons, the Advocate General told the court.

Of the six who denied job offers, according to the Advocate General, one widow said that she was already working as a conductor with the Gujarat State Road Transport Corporation (GSRTC). Another said she needed a sewing machine instead of a job. One of the women said she is 60 and belongs to a financially stable family and is thus not interested in a job with Oreva. Two other widows' families are not permitting them to take up jobs and another widow has a small baby, Advocate General Trivedi further submitted.

The Advocate General further went on to inform the court that the widows are ready to accept sewing machines and monthly compensation from the company.

At the December hearing, Chief Justice Agarwal, while addressing Oreva Group, had said, "Compensation is not enough. Job means recurring income... you have to support them throughout their life, that is the aim of the court. You have completely upturned their life."

Further adding that in case any of the affected women refuse the company's job offer, the firm would then have to ensure that they are paid a monthly stipend, Chief Justice Agarwal had told the firm, "They may not be ready to work or be in a position to work. Suppose they are women who never worked or they never went out of their home. How can you expect them to one day come out of their home and go to work somewhere? For years together you ask them to stay home and one day when their husbands are not there you tell them to go out and work... They might not have the education, courage, or stamina to go out and work... One-time compensation is not going to give them that support that they otherwise needed."

Advocate General Trivedi also submitted that of the 56 injured, it has now been determined that three of them now have a disability of more than 40 per cent.

The court has now kept the matter for further consideration on February 26.

BJP set to win all 4 Rajya Sabha seats in state, Cong opts out of contest

PARIMAL DABHI & ADITIRAJA
GANDHINAGAR, VADODARA,
JANUARY 30

WITH A brute majority of 156 in the Gujarat Legislative Assembly, the BJP is all set to sweep the upcoming polls for four Rajya Sabha seats due next month.

The resignation of four Opposition MLAs, which has brought down the strength from 182 to 178, has further given the ruling party a boost. The Congress has decided to stay out of the polls with Gujarat Pradesh Congress Committee (GPCC) chief Shaktisinh Gohil admitting, "We (Congress) do not have the numbers and so there is no point in fielding candidates."

The Election Commission of India on Monday announced that the elections for 56 Rajya Sabha seats will be held on February 27. In Gujarat, the term for four Rajya Sabha members is set to end on April 2. Union ministers Mansukh Mandaviya and Parshottam Rupala are the BJP Rajya Sabha members, while the other two seats are held by Congress leaders Amee Yajnik and Naran Rathva.

In the December 2022 assembly elections, the BJP got an unprecedented majority by winning 156 out of the total 182 seats. While Congress won 17 seats, the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) secured five seats in its maiden assembly election in the state. Three seats were won by independent candidates. However, a little over one year after the elections, four MLAs - two from Congress, one from the AAP, and an independent MLA - have already resigned. With the four resignations, the total strength of the Gujarat Assembly has come down from 182 to 178.

For Rajya Sabha polls, a candidate is required to get a minimum of 36 votes in the state assembly.

The last date for filing the nominations is February 15.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT ALLEGATIONS

Disclose measures taken to ensure no pressure on complainants: HC to GNLU

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, JANUARY 30

THE GUJARAT High Court Tuesday directed Gujarat National Law University in Gandhinagar to "disclose the measures taken" by the institute's internal committee to prevent any "manual intervention or external pressure" on the sexual harassment complainants lodged before it.

The division bench of Chief Justice Sunita Agarwal and Justice Aniruddha Mayee was hearing a suo motu public interest litigation (PIL) instituted based on news reports of students alleging of rape and queer-phobia at the varsity.

While hearing the matter in October last year, the High Court had also sought that the GNLU submit on the court's records the mechanism of functioning of the varsity's internal complaints committee (ICC), including its annual reports for the past three years.

Addressing the varsity's counsel Tuesday, CJ Agarwal remarked, "You've not brought the mechanism before us till date, you've only brought the constitution of the committee which is not sufficient. How this committee is working, how are they receiving complaints, what method they have adopted to see these complaints are not suppressed because the perpetrator (may) also (be) inside the institution. So, if a student is making a complaint against a professor, the professor may influence, (and) the complaint will never travel to the committee. How will the committee ensure that every complaint reaches you without intervention by anyone else other than the secretariat... you've to bring the details on record by way of an affidavit."

The court went on to record in its order that the varsity disclose "the measures taken" keeping in mind that the "perpetrator sometimes may be part of the same institution".

MATTER OF GREAT PRIDE, SAYS CM

Dhordo R-Day tableau is first in people's choice category

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
AHMEDABAD, JANUARY 30

CHIEF MINISTER Bhupendra Patel on Tuesday announced that the state's tableau on Dhordo tourism village showcased during the Republic Day parade in Delhi has bagged first place in the people's choice category. A total of 25 tableaux were presented by the states, Union Territories, and various ministries of the country during the parade on the 75th Republic Day.

As per a release issued by the state government, Gujarat's tableau has been ranked number one in the people's choice category for the second year in a row by garnering 32 per cent votes in the public voting conducted through the MyGov platform.

In a post on 'X', the Chief

Minister said, "I am extremely happy to inform you that the Gujarat tableau displayed in the parade organised at Kartavyapath,

New Delhi as part of the Republic Day celebrations has bagged the first place in the people's choice category." The Gujarat tableau also bagged second place in the judges' choice category, he said.

The tableau, which was based on the theme 'Dhordo: Global Identity of Gujarat's Border Tourism', covered interesting aspects of the art and culture of Kutch, he said. "It is a matter of great pride for all of us that the tableau from Gujarat has bagged the first position in the people's choice category for the second year in a row. Hon'ble Prime Minister Narendrabhai Modi had dreamt years ago that the white desert of Dhordo would become a global tourism hub," Patel wrote.

Thanks to the development of Kutch, Dhordo was recently adjudged as the "Best Tourism Village" by UNWTO, he said, adding that the tableau reflected various cultural aspects of Kutch, such as Rann Utsav, traditional mud house called as Bhunga and handicrafts. "Congratulations to the team involved. I also express my gratitude to all the citizens who voted for Gujarat's Tableau. Jay Jay Garvi Gujarat," Patel said in his post.
